At the outset, the Vice-Chancellor welcomed the Members and requested with the Hony. Director, IQAC to take the agenda.

The Hony. Director, IQAC extended his thanks and presented the compiled data which was based on the data furnished by the Departments/Centres fitted as per the requirement of the NIRF. After successful presentation of the duly filled in prescribed formats of NIRF related to Faculty of Law, Faculty of Engg. & Tech. and overall university, he also pointed out that this time, we have very carefully taken care of the shortcomings of previous year's data submission and on the basis of this data, now we could be on better ranking. Therefore, he sought approval to upload the same as it was all found satisfactory. Simultaneously, he also apprised that the date of submission of NIRF data has also been extended.

In the end, the Vice-Chancellor extended his appreciation for timely compliance of the directions related to compilation of data of NIRF. The Vice-Chancellor noted and showed satisfaction that all the Departments/Centres have finally furnished the data with all care and requirement. He applauded the collective efforts made by the Hony. Director, IQAC as well as Deans of Faculties, HODs, Directors of Centres and also the active contribution of O&M Branch in compiling the requisite data for NIRF. He further directed that this contribution may be taken as regular routine to maintain and update their data for future compliance. He further asked with the Hony. Director, IQAC that this may also analyse and discuss with the office bearers of IQAC and thereafter, it may be furnished to NIRF.

The meeting ended with vote of thanks to the Chair.
