The highlight of the exhibition is

The miniature Black Taj Mahal

awarded by the President of India in 1996

Taj Mahal, the greatest architectural endeavor of Mughals has continuously fascinated the generations.

The legend of Black Taj Mahal, as a mausoleum to Shahjahan himself, is concurrently mentioned both by the researchers and tourist guides. The topic has been a subject of quest to the visitors and researchers alike.

This seminar cum exhibition is an attempt to explore the knowledge gap on the subject of the Black Taj Mahal. Also, various aspects of the art, architecture, sociology, brand image etc of the Taj Mahal will be presented in some new light via lectures, forums, exhibition and documentaries.
