

DEPARTMENT OF TOURISM AND HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT ORGANISED
WORKSHOP BY ITC VIVEL (LEGAL RIGHTS FOR WOMEN)

20.09.2019. New Delhi. Department of Tourism and Hospitality Management in association with ITC Vivel (Josh Talk) organized the workshop titled “Know Your Rights” – #AbSamjhautaNahin (Women Empowerment) on 20th September 2019. The program was hosted by the corporate guest Miss Avni Bhatia, who has always been intrigued by the question whether ‘the normal is natural’, and she seeks to find answer through interacting with and learning from people. A mover, social, enthusiast, and a passionate believer of human rights and animal rights, she strives to do her bit to bring change and create a more aware and compassionate society for all alike. During the workshop, students acknowledged the important legal rights and its implication. The Right to Equality, Right to Freedom, Right against Exploitation, Right to freedom of Religion, Cultural and Educational Rights, Right to Property and Right to Constitutional remedies.

views on Consent during the session.

Through videos and performances, the students understood the legal rights in an effective manner. Ms. Avni thoroughly explained the importance of speaking up against any workplace harassment and how it can change the mindset of society. Certain issues like Domestic violence, Cyber Safety, the Landmark decisions in History by which various amendments in Constitution were made and lastly, she brought her

The workshop was presided by Dr. Sarah Hussain, Ms. Sudha Chandra and Dr. Nusrat Yasmeen and conducted by Mohd. Yunus Khan and Dr. Madhumita Mukherjee.

After the workshop the attendees were provided with Vivel Goodies.

The locus of the workshop was to educate the young students and provide them the understanding of their rights.

