BACKGROUND

CDAC, Noida is executing a project entitled Digital Library Mega Centre sponsored by Ministry of Communications and Information Technology, Government of India. The project has been started in April, 2004 and digitization of books is targeted for completion within the stipulated period of two years.

Jamia Millia Islamia has a Central Library (i.e., the Dr. Zakir Husain Library) and a number of Faculty and Centre Libraries. The Dr. Zakir Husain Library has a collection of about 3.28 Lacs books & bound volumes and subscribes to 379 journals.

The said Library has 2500 manuscripts in Arabic, Persian & Urdu. These pertain to 15th – 18th century; and related to Culture, History, Literature, Islamic Studies, Philosophy, Geography Astrology, etc. There are about 1000 rare books in English, Arabic, Persian & Urdu pertaining to various subjects. The library also has some valuable books in Urdu language on Veda, Upanishads, Ramayan, Mahabharat, Bhagavat Gita, Bhagwan Mahavir, Gautam Budh, Guru Nanak and Sikh religion, Swami Dayanand Saraswati, Swami Vivekanand, Sri Aurobindo, Radha Swami Movement, etc. The Library has valuable source material on the history of freedom movement in the form of private papers of the eminent leaders such as Maulana Mohd. Ali Jauhar, Hakim Ajmal Khan & others. The Library has a separate "Jamia Authors Collection" of 3000 books written, edited and compiled by persons who are or were associated with Jamia Millia Islamia.

The Dr. Zakir Husain Library's Digital Resource Centre provides electronic access to 14,000 E-journals through 26 major databases in various areas of Sciences, Social Sciences, Religious Studies, Arts & Humanities, Engineering & Law. The Library has fully computerized its English and Hindi collection, which is now available to users through Online Catalogue. It includes a centralized database of all the theses awarded by the Jamia. The Library has a dedicated Internet Area where students are encouraged to make use of E-Journals, with regular Orientation Programme.

The Library has also been functioning as a referral centre on Islamic Studies, Urdu language & literature and receives requests for its bibliographic information from all over the country. A number of scholars visit the Library from the country & abroad for its reference & consultation.

With a rich collection and Library's well-developed Digital Resource Centre, the Dr. Zakir Husain Library has been recognized as one of the sources of such multilingual data which will be useful for Digital Library creation. The Jamia Millia Islamia agrees to participate in the project and contribute manuscripts, rare books, periodicals, etc. for the Digital Library Mega Centre.

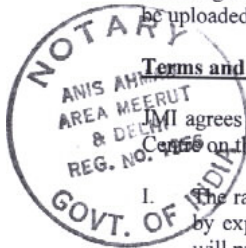

Use

The ultimate aim of the project is to digitize identified rare books, manuscripts & newspapers and make use of the multi-lingual contents for research purposes in OCR test-bed and create other digital Library tools. Only those books and resources which are free from copyright will be uploaded on the web.
